

Analysis Report

1. Categories and Content Types: The content is distributed across various categories

2. Reaction Distribution: The reactions are distributed across various Content Types

3. Average Category Score: The average score for each category

4. Sentiment Distribution: Sentiments associated with the content are classified as negative, neutral, or positive.

5. Sentiment Average Score by Content Type: Average scores vary between negative, neutral, and positive sentiments for different content types.

6. Sentiment Analysis by Category: Breakdown of sentiments by category highlights the distribution of reactions.

Conclusion

1. Positive Sentiment Dominance

- Positive sentiment (545 instances) outweighs negative (300) and neutral (117) sentiments significantly.

2. High Engagement in Certain Categories

- The average scores for categories like Culture (43.42) and Dogs (42.41) are higher, indicating better engagement in these areas.

3. Content Type Performance

- Certain content types, like GIFs and videos, have higher average engagement scores across sentiments.

4. Sentiment by Category Analysis

- Categories such as Culture and Dogs have a favorable distribution of positive sentiments, which supports higher engagement levels.

